DOUBLE BILL

David Jacobs-Strain

Marjorie Thompson

David Jacobs-Strain emerged from the rain soaked mountains of Western Oregon storming the festival circuit as a dynamic blues prodigy. Like a diesel powerhouse of raw energy, David speeds across the landscape of the Country Blues to the earthbound grooves of the Mississippi Delta, with his driving slide guitar and fervent vocals. His passion stretches the limits of the blues with blazing guitar breakdowns that verge on psychedelia and highlight his intimate knowledge of the fretboard.

Marjorie Thompson has worked hard and excelled at three careers, any one of which would cause many to bow under the pressure. What she has in common with the fingerstyle guitarists and songwriters and singers of the blues, country blues, and folk traditions is that she has lived life fully and made pointed and poignant observations about it. She has recorded four studio albums of her songs with a proper producer and engineer, and her career as a country blues artist has continued to grow. Recently, she has served as Jorma Kaukonen's teaching assistant at Fur Peace Ranch.
